CHINESE RESPECT FOR THE BODY.

Some Curious Customs Practiced by the Celestials in Their Own Country.

The Pekin Gazette recently contained an imperial edict severely censuring

a number of officials concerned in the execution of a criminal who was sentenced to death by strangulation, but who, "by a stupid piece of reckless and unwarrantable bungling," was decapitated instead.

Commenting on this incident, the North China Herald says that the Emperor only reflected Chinese sentiment in stating great importance to the difference between the two, decapitation being regarded as a much more dishonorable death than strangulation.

The Chinese feel the utmost repugnance to any mutilation of the body, not on account of the pain or the fear of death, but because of the sentiment that it is a man's duty to keep in tact as far as he can, the body which his parents have bequeathed to him. It forms part of that system of filial piety which is the ethical religion of China, and has had its share in producing the Chinese dislike of war and revolutions.

Patience and uncomplainingly as most

Chinese will go through a surgical operation, it is well known that they strongly object to amputation, and it is often difficult to induce them to submit to it. They invariably ask for the severed limb, which they either keep in a box, to be buried with the original owner on his death, or they eat it. This latter method has the countenance of antiquity; what is severed from the body by accident or necessity is returned to it.

A work which has been called the Chinese proverb "Illud" records of a certain hero, that when drawing out a stray arrow which entered his eye in battle, the eye came with the weapon; whereupon he swallowed the former with great sang-froid, observing that father's flesh and mother's blood should not be thrown away.

Some commentators on the work say that as a temporary expedient this was quite allowable, and even commendable, but that the regular course would be to wrap up the eye and keep it until death.

Teeth are treated in much the same way. Milk teeth are regarded as a mere make-shift of nature, and therefore not possessed of the dignity of adult teeth.

The latter are carefully kept when they come out, or they are ground to powder and swallowed in water, for they are part of the parent's bequest.

Another phase of this subject is the practice, so frequently commended by the Emperor, of making broth for a sick parent out of flesh cut from the body of the child. The efficacy of the practice is that it restores to the parent a portion of his own essence.

Vicegods are constantly begging for special rewards to be bestowed on children who have mutilated themselves for this purpose. The mother of a late Governor of Yunnan, who was then 87 years old, was commended not long since in these terms:

"She obtained a reputation for the filial piety she displayed towards her husband's parents, mutilating herself to mix her flesh with his medicine when her father-in-law was ill."

A few years ago the Viceroy of Szechuen reported a case in which a dutiful son, who was too poor to satisfy a sudden craving on the part of his sick mother for meat, cut a piece of flesh off his arm and made soup for her. He felt, the report says, no pain from the mutilation, and the wound healed at once.

An Important Decision.

The Interstate Commerce Commission filed an interesting and important decision a few days ago. The case arose under the following facts: The Burlington and Northern railroad company made a rate between Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis, against which its rivals could not compete. In their schedules, therefore, they reduced their rates to these points to the same figure, but sought to make themselves good by charging higher rates to intermediate points; in other words, made greater charges upon a shorter haul than upon a longer haul in the same direction. Upon the hearing these rival lines sought to justify themselves upon the ground that the Burlington and Northern rates were too low to be compensatory and that it was impossible for any competing line to conduct business under these rates unless they were permitted to make the higher charges to intermediate points where competition did not exist. The Burlington and Northern answered that their rates to Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis were fairly remunerative, that in maintaining them they did not charge higher rates for shorter intermediate hauls and that their competitors should be enjoined from doing so. Against this the competitors claimed that the Commission should adopt one of two courses—either raise the Burlington and Northern rates to figures fairly remunerative or allow them to maintain their present schedules. By way of argument they urged that the provision of the Interstate Commerce Law, that all charges shall be reasonable and just, was not complied with unless they were reasonable and just from the standpoint of railroads as well as from that of the public and that to force upon them the Burlington rates was a steady and destructive drain upon their resources.

The Commission, however, does not assent to this view, but argues with great foresight that if it were allowed to prevail any railroad company might, from policy or perverseness, adopt a tariff sheet which would allow all other lines to violate the law and charge what rates they pleased for shorter hauls, and thus the operation and interpretation of the law itself would in effect be put in the hands of the corporations.

The effect of the doctrine contended for would be that railroad companies might at will build up a single point to preponderating and conclusive ascendancy, at the expense of all others, giving it rates which would be but a mere fraction of what others must pay, and thus establish this ascendancy with no regard to natural advantages. The question of just and fair rates is always relative. It will not do to say that rates in intermediate stations are just and fair in themselves. Low rates to one place will not be just and fair if still lower rates are given to a rival.

The decision followed restraining the Burlington and Northern's rivals from making such illegal charges. It further holds that Congress, in framing the law requiring all rates to be reasonable and just was legislating for the protection of the public and not for the protection of railroad companies against the unreasonable competition of rivals.

In many respects this is the most important decision which the Commission has yet handed down. It puts no check upon the railroad companies liberty, to indulge in rate cutting law, but secures to the public their rights during its progress.

THE Democratic National Committee recently purchased the New York Star as a campaign organ. The Star was in several respects the most available of the New York papers. It has always supported Grover Cleveland, and it had always supported Governor Hill, and it was the only paper in New York City that had given hearty support to both men. Again, the Star was not a prosperous newspaper and was open to any offer that would put money in the pockets of its owners. So the Democratic National Committee bought it. And now, when the committee has owned the paper but a short time, it is announced that the editorial and reportorial staff have struck. And worst of all have struck for their pay. A bad showing truly when the party which poses as the friend of the wage worker, does not meet the claims of those immediately under its employ.

The punishments of polygamists seem to have put no check upon the ardor of the Mormons. They are as active in proselyting as ever. A small army has recently been landed in New York composed of foreign converts to the faith and containing about equal numbers of the ignorant, vicious and inexperienced. The young and inexperienced, under the decision of the Collector of the Port, will be returned to their homes, and only those who have passed their monogamy will be allowed to pursue their troubled way. For the way of the polygamist is becoming exceedingly thorny. The Federal courts are pushing their prosecutions with vigor, and honest polygamists, and there are such, are undergoing prosecution for their religious sake as courageously as the early Christians endured their martyrdom.

POLITICAL MACHINES.

How Secretary Endicott Has Frustrated Our Armories and Arsenal.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The Post-to-morrow will publish the following: Perry S. Heath, correspondent of the Indianapolis Journal, has delivered to Senator Hale, Chairman of the Select Committee on Reform in the Civil Service, a copy of a confidential circular issued by General Benet, Chief of Ordnance, which the Senator says he will make the basis of a request for official inquiry by the Senate. The circular is as follows: "Ordnance Office, War Department, Washington, D. C. January 4, 1888.—To Commanding Officers of the National Armories at Springfield and Rock Island, and of the United States Arsenal at New York, West Troy, Philadelphia, Boston and Benicia: While the armories and arsenals are not intended to be converted into political machines, two political parties in this country are recognized, and it is therefore ordered that hereafter, in employing or discharging employees of any and all grades, other things being equal and qualifications satisfactory, Democrats will be favored, the object being to divide the force in the different grades gradually between Democrats and Republicans. This rule will apply to women and children, as well as to men, and will be strictly enforced."

S. V. BENET, Chief of Ordnance. Heath informed Senator Hale that he had shown the circular to General Benet, who acknowledged its genuineness, and stated that he had been instructed to write it by Secretary Endicott.

The Utah Commission. WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Messrs. McClernand and Carlton of the Utah Commission have made a minority report to Secretary Vilas, which reviews the condition of affairs in that Territory during the year. The report is complimentary to the Mormon industry, pointing out the fact that many Mormon voters have taken the registration oath and swear that they will not again commit polygamy, and that 90 per cent favor punishment for that offense. The minority report favors no further legislation on the subject, but favors an amendment to the Constitution prohibiting Mormonism in any form.

In conservative circles the Emperor of Germany is credited with the statement that Count Herbert Bismarck will be the future director of Germany's foreign policy.

BUCKLEY BLAMED

For the Disgraceful Proceedings at the Republican Primaries. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—The Executive Committee of the Republican State Central Committee met this afternoon and adopted resolutions expressing the sentiments of the State Committee of the Republican party on the scenes that transpired yesterday at the primary election and last night when the votes were being counted at the County Committee headquarters. After reviewing these scenes the committee say:

"We charge that in our belief these acts were inspired and directed by the so-called Democratic Boss Buckley of San Francisco, and were successfully carried into effect by his followers; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Republican State Central Committee, after carefully examining the facts concerning the primary election so held in San Francisco, publish to the world that no Republican known as such in this community was engaged in such nefarious proceedings; that fraudulent voting, destruction of ballot-boxes, breaking into rooms where elections were held, the numerous assaults and batteries upon innocent citizens, the exhibition of deadly weapons and commission of murder were the result of a political organization of which Boss Buckley, the Democratic ward stricker of San Francisco is the head.

"We do not charge that the more respectable portion of the Democratic party of this city participated in, aided or abetted in the wicked proceedings, but we believe the peculiar methods of the Democratic boss of this city were the causes that led to them."

A ROYAL RECEPTION.

L. O. O. F. Sovereigns Grand Officers in Portland, Oregon.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 28.—This morning the officers of the Sovereigns Grand Lodge, L. O. O. F., arrived here on a special car from Los Angeles. Among the number were Grand Sire John C. Underwood of Kentucky, the Lieutenant General Commanding the Patriarch Militant and Deputy Grand Sire Charles M. Basbee of North Carolina. On their arrival here the distinguished visitors were received by a delegation from the Grand Lodge of Oregon. During the day the visitors were driven all around the city in carriages. To-night a grand public reception was tendered them at the Tabernacle. An immense crowd was in attendance. Addresses of welcome were delivered and responded to. Following these came an informal reception. To-morrow the visitors will make an excursion up the Columbia, leaving for the East Sunday.

In Two Acts in the Teller. St. Louis, September 28.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Denver says: A man answering the description of Tascott, the Chicago burglar who murdered millionaire Snell, has just been arrested. The reward for his arrest is $20,000.

He has been employed here as a bar tender for some weeks, under the name of Edward J. Carter. The arrest was made at the instance of a detective who followed Carter through Oregon, Washington Territory, California and Nevada.

Four Timber Cutters Arrested. SAN FRANCISCO, September 28.—United States Marshal Frank arrived from Siskiyou county this morning with James J. Scott, Mark J. Neber, Joseph J. Schafer and William W. S. Shattuck in custody. These men were arrested for cutting timber from government land. They have been indicted by the United States grand jury, and on arrival in the city were admitted to bail by Judge Hoffman.

A Dreadful Fire. St. Petersburg, September 28.—Sixteen persons perished in a fire at Cronstadt yesterday. The building was a lofty wooden tenement. The staircase burned away, and a number of the inmates leaped from the windows and were mortally hurt.

Randall Renominated. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28.—Samuel J. Randall has been unanimously renominated by the Democrats of the Third district. It is said the Republicans will not nominate any one to oppose him.

Sawyer and Sabia. WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The House Judiciary Committee has determined to lay on the table the resolutions of the San Francisco anti-Chinese mass meeting, asking for the impeachment of Justice Sawyer and Sabia.

A SEATTLE SENSATION.

Arrest of a President Lawyer on a Charge of Smuggling. SEATTLE, W. T., Sept. 28.—At half-past 1 this morning Hon. J. C. Haines, a well-known lawyer, was arrested on a warrant issued from Buffalo, charging him with conspiracy and smuggling. Mr. Haines is Chairman of the Republican Territorial Central Committee and a leading lawyer of Puget Sound. He went to Tacoma accompanied by the officers this morning, and will give bonds to-day.

The Post-Intelligencer, referring to the arrest, says: This arrest, which is not explained, unquestionably grows out of Mr. Haines' connection as the defending attorney for Gardner and others now under arrest in New York State charged with smuggling. The zeal of those who have promoted and executed this outrage upon an honorable and worthy citizen is due, without doubt, to the fact that Mr. Haines is an official in high standing in the Republican organization of Washington Territory.

A BIG DEAL.

Remarkable Advance in September Wheat in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—The Daily News will say of the remarkable advance in September wheat to-day: It is the outcome of a corner in that option by B. P. Hutchinson, who has been buying all September wheat offered lately; that, as only three days remained for the shorts to settle their trades in, they went into the pit this morning and began to bid against each other, with the result that the price mounted rapidly; that when it reached $1.30, Hutchinson sent the shorts word that he had wheat to sell; they flocked to his office, where he disposed of $25,000 bushels at $1.25 in a very short time; that he then, after telling those of the shorts still waiting that wheat would go to $2 within a week, went away to his club, leaving instructions with his brokers to sell the shorts all the wheat they wanted at $1.25, or buy all they wanted at $1.24. There is a suspicion that Hutchinson also has most of the December wheat, and, in consequence, that option went up to $1.

The Labor Party.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The Labor party will probably be deprived of Election Inspectors in this city at the coming election, the corporation counsel having given an opinion against their claim. The Police Commissioners have been summoned by the Supreme Court to show cause. The hearing is set for next Monday.

The Incendiary's Torch.

GRASS VALLEY, September 28.—Last night the house of Madame Vassness, in Boston ravine, was burned. The fire is believed to have been incendiary. The occupant was rescued with difficulty. The fire spread to the roof of William Campbell's store. The total loss is $800.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES.

Slogger Sullivan is improving. To date there have been 2,368 cases of yellow fever reported at Jacksonville, Florida, and 237 deaths.

The President has approved the joint resolution appropriating $200,000 to suppress infection in interstate commerce.

Eighty cases of dynamite exploded on the wharf at Cartagena, Spain, on Thursday. Much damage was done, but nobody was killed.

Milton Weston, a Chicago millionaire, who was sentenced to five years in the Pennsylvania Penitentiary for murder, has been pardoned.

Cuban newspapers say there is no exaggeration in estimating the losses caused by the recent cyclone at over six millions in the districts of Sagua and Cardenas.

Will Maintain a High Standard. The Journal says: The GAZETTE has again changed hands, Allen C. Bragg having assumed control of the paper. Mr. Bragg is well-known in this section, and will be remembered as Business Manager of the paper when it was at its best. He will maintain a high standard for it, and the Journal wishes him the best of success.

TO YOUNG VOICES.

Sensible and Non-Partisan Advice by Bob Burdette.

Robert J. Burdette, philosopher and humorist, gives the twenty-owners of the country the following good advice: My son, you will cast your first vote for President next November. I don't want to influence your vote. I don't want you to vote for a man just because certain other men do. I want you to sit down and think about it before you vote. I want you to be able to give a reason for your vote. I want you to go to the polls in good company. As a young man of progressive ideas, I want you to be abreast of the world and shoulder to shoulder with the times when you walk up to the polls. I want you, on entering politics, to align with the party which has the purest, most progressive record. I don't care a cent, my boy, whether you are a Republican or a Democrat. There are honest men, patriotic citizens, good Christians in both parties. One I don't want to see you walk up to the polls and cast your first vote with the party

That upheld slavery as a divine institution; That bought and sold men, women and babies like so many mules; That fired on Fort Sumter and the American flag; That for nearly five years fought to destroy the Union; That opposed the issue of greenbacks when the Government was fairly perishing for the want of them; That organized mobs and riots to oppose the draft; That swept American commerce from the seas with armed privateers; That is the party of Boss Tweed and Jefferson Davis; That polls the heaviest majorities in the most vicious and ignorant precincts; That has opposed every liberal and progressive measure to legislation during the last quarter of a century; That was the defender of slavery; That was the defender of Mormonism;

That slandered Garfield; and That assassinated Lincoln. Now, as I have said before, my son, I don't care whether you are a Republican or Democrat. Choose for yourself. Just keep away from the crowd whose record I have briefly outlined. Find the party to whom the record belongs and then forever keep away from it. You need not be particular with which party you unite, if you don't join that one. Always vote about right. I am a Republican, but I will shake hands with any Democrat who votes against that record. That kind of a Democrat is always a good enough Republican for me.

P. S.—I have never found that kind of a Democrat.

In Memoriam.

To the Officers and Members of Reno Lodge, No. 19, I. O. O. F.: Your committee to whom was confided the mournful duty of expressing in a fitting manner the sorrow of our members for the loss of our esteemed brother, the late Isaac Fredrick, desire, in the name of the Lodge, to offer our sincere sympathy and condolence to the family of our deceased brother, to whom he was a faithful and affectionate husband and father. The community in which he lived honored and respected him, as an upright and conscientious citizen and townsman, who was ever ready with his advice and his means to promote the general good. In our Lodge he was a valued and a good Odd Fellow, fraternal to a degree in his intercourse with all, wise in his suggestions for the good of the Order, and enthusiastic in his efforts for the good of the Lodge. While we sincerely and deeply mourn his loss, let us hope that the example of his pure life and conduct may not be lost upon his surviving brothers of the Fraternity.

A Lucky Comstocker.

R. T. Brodek of Virginia City was a creditor of the firm of L. B. Frankel & Co., the stock brokers who failed December 2, 1886, to the tune of nearly $1,000,000, carrying wreck and desolation on every side. Mr. Brodek ascertained that the Frankels owned a number of lots at Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, and attached them.

R. B. Mitchell, formerly of the law firm of Woodburn & Mitchell, attended to Mr. Brodek's suit of attachment, and won. Defendants then claimed they did not owe Mr. Brodek, and the suit then came up on its merits.

Yesterday Mr. Brodek received a dispatch from his counsel which stated that a judgment had been rendered awarding plaintiff $3,500, with interest and costs. Mr. Brodek will quietly take possession of about twelve lots that are daily climbing up in value.

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

James Middlewast, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Trouble. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottle free at Hodgkinson's drug store.

Why cough and suffer with a cold when you can get relief from Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It contains no opium. Price, 25 cents. Sold by Wm. F. Frazier. All genuine preparations bear the fac-simile signature of D. D. P. Frazier.

SILVER PROSPECTS.

A Universal Feeling That the Rise Has Come to Stay.

The steady rise in silver is significant, and what is more significant, is the feeling that seems to be universal, that the rise has come to stay. It is not much of a feat either to put silver back to par, if we but consider the facts, says the Salt Lake Tribune. A syndicate strong enough to buy and sell 1,000,000 ounces a month for two years can do it. We think, indeed, that eighteen months would be enough. The banks of New York could use a little of their surplus that way and be out nothing at all, for they could reckon their silver bullion as surplus, even as they now do their gold. And should they succeed they would clear the difference between 90 cents per ounce and $1.23 on what they purchase now, and so on down until there would be no longer any occasion to purchase any more, for it would be sterling money and the same perfect measure of value that it was in 1873 before the wicked and foolish legislation was resorted to which has caused much trouble and loss. This was the idea, doubtless, which was in ex-Secretary Manning's mind, but which was arrested by his sickness and death. The Tribune at that time explained that it would be nothing for the banks to do this if they tried, and the reasons are quickly given. In her dealings with the great India colony, Great Britain has used annually for from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 more in silver than all the mines of the world outside of the United States yield. By the requirements of the "Bland Law," the United States Government is bound to buy and coin 20,000,000 ounces annually. Our mines yield about $40,000,000. The rule of late has been to let nearly all our silver go to Europe, to have the brokers in London fix the price upon it, and then for our Government to buy it back and coin it. Last year 17,000,000 ounces were handled that way. Now, if the banks would buy it as fast as it reached New York or any other American sea port, within four months England would have no more to sell and our Government would have to purchase the syndicate, or, at least at the syndicate's prices. This would absorb three-fifths of our product. With no silver shipped across the sea, by next June England would find that all her stock of bullion, and all that she could get from the world outside, would not be sufficient to meet her India obligations. She herself would then have to call upon the syndicate. She would be in a corner and she could not help herself, except by using her silver coin, and that passes now from hand to hand as money at the rate of 15 1/2 to 1 of gold. There would be no escape for her and the infancy would have to stop. There is no reason why Ormsby and Washoe counties should disagree politically or otherwise, for our interests are identical, and never at any previous Legislature was there so much reason for conjoint action between the representatives of two counties as the coming one of 1889. Irrigation is "the watchword," and should be the all-absorbing thought in every law-maker's mind.

The breach that divided Ormsby from Washoe county has been bridged over by the mutual friendly acts displayed during the past few weeks, and now, as a properly organized family, we can work harmoniously for the best interests of the whole State, and it may not be amiss for the legislators (when elected) to meet and determine on their future course of action in the all-important irrigating scheme.

COMSTOCK ENGINEERING.

The manner in which the Mills of the Future will be run.

The Virginia Enterprise gives additional accounts of the preparations being made to drive the Nevada mill with power generated by dynamos which are about to be set up in the "electric chamber" on the Suto tunnel level of the Chollar mine. The most curious feature, perhaps, is the way the dynamos are to be driven. There will be six of these and each will be driven by a Pelton wheel. These Pelton wheels are to be of what is called "phosphor" bronze. Each will be forty inches in diameter, and with a stream of water flowing through a nozzle less than half an inch in diameter under a vertical pressure of 1600 feet, will develop about 125 horsepower, or 750 horse-power for the six wheels. It is expected that 80 per cent of this power will be transmitted to the machinery of the mill by means of wire cables. The power will be sent up the shaft 1600 feet, and hence 1600 feet more to the mill. It is audacious engineering, but there seems to be no apprehension of failure. Indeed, the California mill is being already run successfully in the same way.

Eat With Comfort and be Happy.

It is by no means uncertain, but, on the contrary, a well ascertained fact, that upon the well being of man's stomach depends that medium of happiness which is vouchsafed to him in this world. Dyspepsia, the foe of all others to the stomach's tranquility, and most to be dreaded, is a continual cure of which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is especially adapted. It enables those who use it with a reasonable degree of persistence to eat with relish, because it imparts a healthful appetite; to digest with ease, because it strengthens the stomach; and to assimilate the food which is eaten and digested, thus benefiting health, promoting flesh and sustaining the exercise of the physical and mental faculties. It, moreover, facilitates the secretion of healthy bile, acts without disconcerting the habit of body, and tends, when taken upon retiring, to produce healthy slumber. Malaria is conquered by it.

Irritation of the Throat and all Lung Troubles are quickly relieved and permanently cured by Frazar's Asthmatic Cough Balm. (It contains no opium.) Price, 75 cents. Sold by Wm. Frazier. All genuine preparations bear the fac-simile signature of D. D. P. Frazier.

A BIG IRRIGATION SCHEME.

An Appropriation Made for Reorganizing the Experiment of Storing Water.

The most important new subject of interest to Nevada which has been agreed to in the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill in the House is the proposition to appropriate $100,000 for beginning the experiment of storing water in the recesses of the Rocky mountains by means of which the arid lands of the great Western plains can be irrigated. It was feared by the friends of this measure that it would be impossible to overcome the opposition which some of the economists of the House would urge to it. After a contest of several days, however, their opposition proved unavailing. The House reduced considerably the appropriation which the Senate had already made; still the sum which the House has voted will enable the Director of the Geological Survey, Major Powell, to enter upon the great work which he has for many years had in mind. He said, at a time when this subject was first called to the attention of Congress, that the project had been the thought of his life, and that he was confident that, if Congress would approve of the plan, the vast plains which are now regarded as worthless could be rendered capable of growing many millions of people. While the appropriation will not more than enable the preliminary work to be done, there is little reason to doubt that, if it shall be shown that the project is practicable, Major Powell will be able to secure the necessary sums to proceed with the work.

The delay in passing the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill has materially interfered with Director Powell's plans respecting surveys for the establishment of reservoirs on the public domain. If the appropriation had been made in time surveying parties would have been sent to the headwaters of the Owens, Carson and Walker rivers in the Sierra Nevada Mountains, debouching into the arid lands of this State. Then surveys would be made on the headwaters of the Platte and Arkansas rivers. It is probable now that the surveys will be begun on streams in Southern California and Arizona, where the winter climate is mild.

RECIPROCATING.

Deacon Parkinson and Carson Extend the Hand of Good Fellowship.

Deacon Parkinson, in the Tribune of yesterday, has the following to say: The next man, let him be private individual, office-holder or seeker, or worse than all, connected with the press of Carson City, who, by any act, remark, or even innuendo, casts a reflection on the residents of the town of Reno for their lack of friendly feeling towards their sister county, ought to be anathematized, and made to suffer the penalty due to untruthfulness.

The people of Carson have on every occasion shown the denizens of that railroad town their desire to be on friendly terms, and at length a feeling of reciprocity seems to have grown up, and the two adjoining counties are now bound together by the cords of friendship and mutual esteem, and so "note it ever be." There is no reason why Ormsby and Washoe counties should disagree politically or otherwise, for our interests are identical, and never at any previous Legislature was there so much reason for conjoint action between the representatives of two counties as the coming one of 1889. Irrigation is "the watchword," and should be the all-absorbing thought in every law-maker's mind.

Hall's VEGETABLE Hair Renewer.

Hall's Hair Renewer restores gray hair to its original color; makes the scalp white and clean; cures dandruff and humors; prevents the hair from falling out; and keeps it soft and brilliant. The editor of the "Ocean View," Cape May, writes: "We speak knowingly when we assert that Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer is the best of its kind. The article is an elegant and clean one, without which we think no toilet complete." Thos. D. Jones, Middle Granville, N. Y., writes: "I have used

The advance of time is heralded by bleached, thin, and falling hair. By the use of Hall's Hair Renewer, the hair may be restored to its original color, lustre, and vitality. M. N. Johnson, Pittsburg, Mass., writes: "My hair was weak, thin, and full of dandruff. Hall's Hair Renewer has removed the dandruff and caused a vigorous growth of new hair." Abel H. Smith, Portsmouth, Va., writes: "My hair had nearly all fallen out, and that which was left was dry and dead. I used one bottle of Hall's Hair and now rejoice in the possession of hair as abundant as ever." E. J. Adams, St. Paul, Minn., writes: "A diseased scalp caused my hair to fall out, and, after using a number of preparations without avail, I finally tried Hall's Hair Renewer, which caused a vigorous new growth. I am still using it, and could ask for no better results." Mrs. R. H. Corning, Battle Creek, Mich., writes: "By the use of Hall's Hair Renewer, my head, which was quite bald, has been covered with a fine growth of young hair."

POGILISM IN NEW YORK.

THE DECLINE OF INTEREST IN BOXING MATCHES.

Sullivan and Kilrain Compared—The Battle between Smith and Kilrain—Mitchell a Better Man than Sullivan—In Their Last Fight—America's Ablest Bruisers—A Good Word for the Art of Self-Defense.

(Copyright 1900)

There is a vast amount of nonsense published about pugilists at all times—but the romancing which has resulted from the battles between Smith and Kilrain and Sullivan and Mitchell, on the other side of the water, is startling even from the standpoint of professional blowards. Pugilism in New York is a sensation, a calling or a pastime, is practically dead. Many of the more prosperous boxing masters complain of an entire falling-off in the number of devotees to the mainly art of self-defense, and pugilistic talk is rare where it was once incessant. The man who made pugilism triumphant has succeeded in driving it to the duct. Sullivan is a blackguard and a bully. While he was in perfect form, strong, as a lion, fearless, full of brute courage and bent on being the greatest fighter in the world, he was more or less of a hero; but, of late years, he has thrown decency and courage to the winds and his name has been stained upon pugilism. I have seen Kilrain and Sullivan fight both here and on the other side, and I have not the slightest doubt in the world that Kilrain can whip Sullivan in a square, stand-up fight according to London Prize-ring rules.

Kilrain is the most popular sporting man who ever won a title from America. He was quiet and unobtrusive, gentlemanly and sincere. He fought a great battle with Smith, and all the talk of its being a put-up job is moonshine. Every decision was in Smith's favor; every slip on the part of Kilrain eagerly and unjustly punished. There were sixty or seventy Englishmen and only five Americans. Every Englishman had his money on Smith, and naturally, the decision was a draw, although Smith was clearly and palpably whipped a dozen times during the fight. On our way back to Rouen, in France, the Englishmen crowded around Kilrain and shook his hands a hundred times. They praised him and lauded him for his magnificent and thoroughly honest bearing during the fight, while Smith and his seconds tried every foul known to a debased and cockney gang. The friends that Kilrain made on this fight stuck to him throughout his visit to England. I will say this much for Englishmen—that, when they once make up their mind a man is a star, and honest, they back him up like heroes.

Mitchell never did a better day's work than when he acted as Kilrain's second, for he was obliged to fight his own countryman to ward off the fouls, and he did it like a major. As for Mitchell not backing Kilrain, I personally know this to be untrue, for, on two occasions, I was with Mitchell when he made bets on his principal in the Criterion.

Concerning the Sullivan-Mitchell fight, it does not seem to me that the most careless of the observers of prize fighting could be deceived by the record. It rained hard, but the rain was as bad for Mitchell as it was for Sullivan, and the ring was twenty-four feet square, but this is the size in which all the heroes of the sport have won their honors. Both men were in good condition, and Sullivan had trained carefully for months. Nevertheless, the men fought for three hours, and Sullivan was so unable to whip his man despite his superior strength, experience and weight, but was actually landed high and dry and was willing to stop. Further than this, the proof is almost absolute that Sullivan's seconds paid liberally to have the fight declared a draw so as to save the Boston slugger from being whipped outright by a man whom he had always professed to despise.

America has to-day two remarkably well-behaved, honest, straightforward, scientific and plucky fighters. They cannot be beaten by men in their class anywhere in the world. Both of them are industrious, frugal, good family men and possessors of moderate competence. Their names are Jake Kilrain and Jack Dempsey. Compared to them, the Boston pet is neither an exhilarating nor an exciting figure.

It is questionable if it seems to me whether the decline of pugilism in New York is good for the young men of the town. The reign of sluggering matches may have brought out the brutal instincts of our men to a certain extent, but the other effect more than overbalanced this—by which I mean that the stimulation which the talk about prize-fighting and pugilism gave to athletic exercises and particularly to boxing more than overbalanced the alleged decline sentimentally. No man who has any acquaintance with athletic sports will deny that the most beneficial and fascinating of them all is sparring. It develops the arms, legs, back and torso of a man in a weak-kneed youngster, with a degree of celerity that is astonishing. There is a monotony about dumb-bells, clubs, gymnasium work and even rowing and running which palls on an athlete of the most enthusiastic nature after a time. Box sparring is a new game with every blow. The boxer is under a great deal of stress, and it is doubtful if Kilrain and Dempsey can wash away the stigma that John L. Sullivan has placed upon it.
